

PALEONTOLOGICAL SOCIETY—PALEOBIOLOGY

In accordance with the new copyright law, and in order to ensure fullest protection of the rights of both the Paleontological Society's journal PALEOBIOLOGY, and its authors, we now must require that an author formally assign non-exclusive literary property rights to the Society. We regret this inconvenience. Also, PALEOBIOLOGY is now a member of the Copyright Clearance Center. Any royalties from photocopying of PALEOBIOLOGY articles will be considered a source of PALEOBIOLOGY income to help defray the cost of publication, and will revert to PALEOBIOLOGY.

Please complete the lower portion of the form. We thank you very much.

In consideration of the fact that the Paleontological Society undertakes to publish my article,

Does extinction wield an axe or pruning shears? How interactions between phylogeny and ecology affect patterns of extinction in PALEOBIOLOGY Vol. 37 No. 1, I hereby assign non-exclusive literary property rights in the article to the Society.
